

Meet

Charmaine Blair - Lead vocals

Known as Charmony or simply Char to her friends, Charmaine has shared her vocals with numerous bands, musicians, and theaters in various locations such as the Greater Toronto Area, other Canadian cities, the US, and the Caribbean for more than three decades. Her unique style blends funky, soulful, and smooth jazz elements, and she has a remarkable talent for connecting with her audience, openly showcasing her genuine passion for performing.

Dave “Bliss” Lowe - Drums

He is the drummer that musicians enjoy collaborating with. A graduate of Toronto Humber's music program, Bliss has accumulated over 30 years of drumming experience, demonstrating various world styles when touring or playing a luxury cruise ship. Known for his versatility, reliability and laid-back nature, Bliss's music production and teaching skills are invaluable, but he's happiest laying down funky rhythms that audiences love to dance and groove to.

Ted Yearwood - Bass , vocals

It's all about the bass and Ted's instrument is an expansion of his cool demeanor. He navigates an acoustic bass with a soft jazzy flare, and makes playing an electric bass look easy as he creates a funky, expressive sound with little effort. Ted has worked with popular Canadian artists through the years and also toured with other talented musicians. With the best shoe game in town, he's stylish doing it too!

David “Bergie” Bergin - Guitar, vocals

Bergie exudes an energy that only a skilled and self-assured guitarist can radiate. Transitioning from rock 'n' roll bands to a soulful solo performer in Toronto, he has developed a playing style that combines the raw riffs of top rock guitarists with jazzy improvisations. Bergie playfully allows himself to be called "eye candy," particularly for his guitar-playing flair, showcasing his fantastic sense of humor both on and off the stage!

Ozzie Nugara - Keys, piano

Keyboards and pianos are prominent in the sounds of soul, jazz, and RnB music. Ozzie skillfully captures the essence of these genres and infuses funk, rock, and pop elements into his performances, thanks to his diverse repertoire. Having a background in sound engineering, Ozzie is a creative and skilled musician who has also collaborated with popular artists from various countries.

96k band members believe in sharing music from the soul, and they excel at performing live to connect with their audience, playing songs that stir up memories or inspire new ones. There's a tune and tone for every moment!